

News & Updates

We are grateful for all of your hard work, you've helped us achieve so many milestones this year already! Thanks to you we've been able to expand our reach, and these accomplishments are getting recognized by our community!

Champion Award

Executive Director Astrid Aveledo, is the most recent recipient winner of the Washington Mediation Association Champion Award. This statewide accolade is presented by the Washington Mediation Association to leaders who make a significant impact in raising awareness in mediation and conflict resolution. This award specifically recognizes her efforts to reach out to the Latino and Native American communities in the Grays Harbor and Pacific Counties.

Asset Builder Award

AmeriCorps DRC Pacific County Coordinator, Michael Geer-Wagenblast won the Wellspring Asset Builder Award which recognizes individuals and organizations that foster youth development in South Pacific County. He received this for his work in building community partnership, volunteerism, and for supporting youth event connectivities.

Outstanding Service Award

We completed our first youth volunteer cycle, and it was a transformational experience for all of our teens. During this cycle we also awarded Emilio Monahan with the Outstanding Service Award for his commitment to serving our community. Together we are the DRC and we're proud to serve Grays Harbor and Pacific Counties.
